HIGHLIGHTS: NEW / CAN'T MISS

Check out our new features and some all-time favorites.

NEW Attraction – Sept. 5-21:

Vision Dome – 360° Cinematic Journey

This is an awe-inspiring cinematic journey featuring three domes: WorldTour / Outdoor Adventures / 3D Gaming. The screen encompasses the entire interior of the domes, offering a unique vantage point. The 21-meter dome, WorldTour, takes guests on a tour of some of man's most amazing achievements: pyramids of Giza, Machu Picchu, Apollo 11 Moon Landing, and more. The 12.5-meter dome features interactive 3D gaming, while the smallest dome, six meters in size gives guests a 360° view of extreme outdoor sports at their finest. This is a separate ticketed attraction, only $6 for all three experiences, $5 in advance online before 9/4 at www.thefair.com. Children under 36" are free with a paying adult.

NEW Features – Sept. 5-21:

(Placed in alphabetical order)

Classic Coaster Park

Take in the beauty and relaxation of Classic Coaster Park, which was funded by the Washington State Fair Foundation. The park is beautifully landscaped, and features seating areas for parents waiting for their children as they enjoy the midway. Ah, calm in the middle of twirling rides. . .

Fair Game Sports Bar

While most everything is fair game at the Fair, the new sports bar certainly fits the bill. Fair Game Sports Bar, located right inside the Red Gate across from the Oldfield Heritage Center features libations to cool you down, and a great place to watch your favorite game, either collegiate or professional. Why choose between attending the Fair or watching a game on TV when you can do both right here? It's the perfect spot to watch the Broncos play our favorite Super Bowl team on Sept. 21st.

Pierce Transit "Fair Express" Bus

Welcome back, Pierce Transit! This service went on hiatus in 2010, and its return is welcome throughout the South Sound. Direct service to the State Fair will be offered from free parking at South Hill Mall, Lakewood Towne Center and Tacoma Community College to the Blue Gate on a regular basis every single day. For more information, visit www.PierceTransit.org.

SillyVille Family Restrooms

Parents made the request, and we are more than happy to comply! There are now permanent restrooms in the SillyVille area, where our young guests enjoy the amusement rides. We can hear moms cheering right now!

State Fair Penny Press

Collectors love to discover a penny press when they attend a venue. The Washington State Fair Foundation will make collectors of all ages very happy with four new penny presses at the 2014 Washington State Fair. Each machine features a specific Fair-related topic, including the Classic Coaster, nostalgic pig, rodeo, and Ferris wheel. For just 51 cents, you receive a great keepsake.

Tibetan Photo Display

Savor 100 photos featuring Tibetan life, shown in breathtaking 3' x 4' pictures. View these masterpiece photos in the Agriculture/Horticulture Departments.

Department sponsor: Aqua Rec's Fireside Hearth and Home

U.S. Open / Chambers Bay Exhibit

For the first time in its 115-year history, the U.S. Open is coming to the Pacific Northwest to challenge the world's best golfers. The eyes of the world will be on Chambers Bay in University Place next June. Join the excitement by visiting a new exhibit that celebrates the greatest moments in U.S. Open history and shows how Pierce County transformed an empty gravel pit into a golf course ready for its debut on the world stage. The exhibit is based on two books that will be on sale at the exhibit, along with Chambers Bay merchandise (and U.S. Open tickets, if any are still available). See the exhibit in the Fair Museum.

Washington State Fair's 2014 Columbia Bank Concert Series

Some of the top entertainers in the music industry will be taking the stage at Columbia Bank's Washington State Fair Concert Series this year. But it doesn't stop with music, as comedians balance out the list, too. Order tickets at www.thefair.com or (888) 559-FAIR (3247). View the entire concert line-up on the Concert Series tab in this media kit.

NEW Features – Sept. 5-21:

(Placed in date order)

Share a Coke

Sept. 5-7

Imagine holding a Coke can with your name on it. Now you can at the Coke kiosk. Just input your name at the kiosk, and a mini can appears with the Coke logo, and your name. In fact, you can Share a Coke with a friend, and both will enjoy a personalized beverage.

Sponsor: Coca-Cola

XPLORE Adventure Race

Sept. 7 (Su)

Don't miss an urban adventure race that combines the energy of a fun run with the physical demand of an obstacle race, and the social interaction of a community-wide game of Twister. This Washington State Fair Foundation event brings athletes and fun-seekers of all ability levels together. They will compete in teams of 2-5 people, visiting various locations around the State Fair to solve clues and complete wild challenges. One race will be held at noon for all members of the family, and an adults-only race (21+) at 6 p.m. Visit: www.thefair.com/foundation/.

Asian Cultural Day

Sept. 13 (Sa)

Celebrate the vibrant cultures of the Far East on Saturday, Sept. 13. Area groups will pay homage to their heritage through traditional dress/dance/music. Performances will be on the Showplace Stage. ## Can't Miss

(Placed in alphabetical order)

Animals Galore

There are animal shows all around the Fair – and every day of the Fair. Whether it is the Fair Farm (petting farm), open class shows, regional or national shows, each feature animals and their owners who work hard to compete. Have you ever seen cows being milked? Or, try your hand milking a cow with your kids – a faux cow, that is! Mabel is found in the Dairy Barn, and always ready for kids of all ages to practice their milking skills.

Milking Parlor Sponsor: Darigold

Animals of the World

Sept. 5-9

Exotic animals from all over the world are on display in J Barn at the Animals of the World exhibit. See curley horses, Kune Kune pigs, a zebu, watusi, kangaroo, ornamental birds and much more.

Budweiser Designated Driver

In a pledge to drink responsibly, Budweiser is offering something special to designated drivers in all areas of the Fair with bar service. They ask designated drivers to sign up (name and phone), then give them an “Enjoy Responsibly” wrist band, as well as a complimentary Coke.

Comcast Dizzy Pass Opening Weekend Ride Bracelet

FFA and 4-H State Fairs

The Washington State Fair hosts both the FFA State Fair, and the 4-H State Fairs. Students around the state compete, hoping to win blue ribbons at their local level, and progress to the state competition.

Fine Art Show

Talented artists throughout the state compete in the annual Fine Art Show, which is found on the second floor of the Pavilion. There are sculptures, oil paintings, watercolors, miniatures, pencil drawings and more. Many of the pieces are for sale, so spend some time to find just the right work of art for your home.

Fireworks Spectacular

Sept. 5, 12, 19 (F)

The Friday night fireworks are, well, spectacular! Marvel at the Fireworks Spectacular as the sky lights up with amazing color, accented with the loud booms as lights explode into a kaleidoscope of color.

Food, food and more food

Love your traditional food favorites like scones, onion burgers and carmel apples? You're in luck! They will be here. You'll also discover recent newcomers to the Washington State Fair. Juicy's Outlaw Grill comes via semi truck, with 100-feet of grill to cook to perfection a wide range of delicacies. Have a hankering for a lobster roll? Then Sharkey's Seafood is a great option.

Fred Oldfield Western Art Heritage Center

Fred Oldfield is an internationally recognized western artist. Fair guests can share in his widespread experiences and educational efforts to teach about western art while visiting the Fair. Collectors of Fred's work will have an opportunity to participate in a silent auction for one of his pieces during the Fair, with the proceeds benefiting the Fred Oldfield Scholarship for the Arts, part of the Washington State Fair Foundation scholarship program. The highest bidder at the end of the Fair will be the new owner of this Fred Oldfield original. During the Fair the Center has free art demonstrations daily from 1-3 p.m. Musical entertainment will also be appearing daily in the Heritage Center, right inside the Red Gate.

Green Marketplace

Green Marketplace is an urban marketplace, bringing various individual artisans from the Pacific Northwest to you. Their products were grown, hand crafted and designed right here in this area, so you'll be supporting your neighbors with your purchase. Check out the candles, medicinal products, and many other items. Vendors are changing in and out throughout the Fair, so grab your chance to purchase their products. Location: Green Gate area.

Hand Washing Stations

It is important to stay healthy, and the hand washing stations around the grounds help our guests stay that way.

Home Arts

Colorful quilts, freshly made pies, beautifully designed clothing, tablescapes and much more make the Home Arts Department a must for many Fair guests. It's amazing how talented people are who enter the wide variety of contests in Home Arts. Check out these treasures in the Pavilion, second floor.

Hobby Hall

If you wonder what people like to collect, then drop by Hobby Hall and discover the wide array of items, from traditional to zany. Hobby Hall also focuses on handcrafts in a variety of competitions, along with demonstrations.

People Movers

When you attend the Fair Mondays through Thursdays, it is great to jump on a People Mover to travel from one side of the grounds to another. These handy forms of transportation are free of charge from 10 a.m. – 7 p.m., crowds permitting.

Sponsor: Multicare Health Systems

Piglet Palace

Sept. 5-21

One of the favorite features at the Fair is the Piglet Palace! Each year two sows arrive at the Fair with one ready to deliver her piglets around opening day, and another midway through the Fair. Once the piglets arrive, the Palace will be packed with kids of all ages ogling over the latest newcomers to the Washington State Fair. This popular attraction was funded by donors of the Washington State Fair Foundation. Free with gate admission.

Planting Patch/Pioneer Farm

Check out the giant pumpkins, corn, squash and more at the Planting Patch located near SillyVille and the Fair Farm. Learn how the early settlers made food at Pioneer Farm.

Rainier Rush

Last year was the debut of Rainier Rush at the Washington State Fair. This looping inversion coaster guarantees a stomach-twisting experience you won't forget. It will take you over 60 feet in the air, then hold on tight as you speed downhill around wild loops, along wavy tracks and bendy curves. The 80 degree banked inversion is unique, offering a fear factor exciting for every family member. Rainier Rush offers a smooth ride, in spite of its +5.8 gravity force.

Recycling

Helping to keep our earth green is important to all of us, and we recycle a variety of products and items at the Fair. Again this year we are pleased to offer a special plastic bottle recycling program.

Sponsor: Waste Connections

Rides

Funtastic offers over 70 rides that whirl and twirl in the Midway and SillyVille. Thrill seekers love Rainier Rush, while the antique merry-go-round satisfies stomachs that prefer to be lulled. Try out some extreme rides in the Green Gate area, where your heart will pick up its beat the moment you are catapulted toward space.

SillyVille Food Court

Each food vendor in the SillyVille Food Court has at least four menu items, $2.50 or less. That's perfect for a pint-size appetite.

Tractor Tracks

If you thought last year's debut of Tractor Tracks was spectacular, then hold onto your hat! Even more enhancements have been made for the 2014 Washington State Fair. Kids will take a spin on a tractor that they pedal around a maze, seeing a red barn, water feature, big farm tractor and more. It was designed specifically for the younger crowd, and they love it! You'll find Tractor Tracks in SillyVille. It's free, with gate admission.

Sponsor: Tractor Supply Company

Trash Barrels

We pride ourselves in offering a way for guests to toss their unwanted items, and trash barrels around the grounds are the perfect answer.

Sponsor: Les Schwab Tires

Trout Fishing Pond, Snowshoeing, Target Shooting

Kids will love trying their hand at fishing, snowshoeing and target shooting in the NW Outdoors Building, Friday-Sunday, noon – 6:00 pm. Volunteers from state and local non-profit groups will be on hand to help. Age/height restrictions apply.

Unity in Community

Saturday, Sept. 6

This Unity in the Community concert with Yvette Williams and Anson Dawkins starts at 4 p.m. sharp at Showplace Stage, with 100 voices united as one. Promoter: Tracie Davis.

World Vision's Kisongo Trek

Kisongo Trek is an immersive experience in which visitors are digitally transported to Tanzania through film and design. Guests receive a bus ticket, and are invited into the "Kisongo Trek." The journey to Kisongo, Tanzania takes about 15 minutes, and 80-100 people can visit an hour. Sponsor: World Vision

Vendors

Would you like to go shopping to find the perfect item to treat yourself? Or someone else? The Washington State Fair has more than 900 vendor booth spaces with products you'll love to buy!

Washington State Fair Rodeo Breakfast

Sept. 5: (F) – 8-10 a.m.

Drop by before the opening day parade at 10 a.m. and enjoy some pancakes off the griddle, scrambled eggs, sausage and beverages. It's right on the parade route, at the City of Puyallup's Pioneer Park Pavilion, and the cost is only $2 per person. This breakfast is made possible by the Washington State Fair Rodeo Wranglers, and many generous partners in the area.

Washington State Fair Western Rodeo Parade

Sept. 5 (Friday): 10 a.m.

A cattle drive down Meridian, Puyallup's major arterial, kicks off this non-motorized parade. Equestrian drill teams, school marching bands, horse hitchers, costume characters and loads of fun kick off opening day of the Fair and the Rodeo.

Washington State Fair Rodeo, Justin Boots Playoffs, Sponsored by O'Reilly Auto Parts

Friday, Sept. 5 (1 & 6:30 p.m.); Sat., Sept. 6 (1 & 6:30 p.m.); Finals on Sunday, Sept. 7 (1 p.m.)

Go big or go home is what the top rodeo athletes at the Washington State Fair Rodeo face for three straight days. They are fighting for their rodeo lives to take home top honors, and their chance at the National Finals Rodeo in December. You'll see the top cowboys and cowgirls compete in each event. The road to the National Finals goes through Puyallup, where you'll see some of the best rodeo in the business. Purchase tickets at www.thefair.com/rodeo.

Sponsor: O'Reilly Auto Parts

Wool Riders Only (mutton bustin')

Monday-Friday 1:30, 3:30 and 5:30 p.m.

Saturday and Sunday 10:30 a.m.; 12:00, 2:00, 4:00, 6:30 p.m.

You'll love watching kids ages four to seven (and under 60 pounds) attempt to last six seconds on a sheep that's as unpredictable as a bull! Young mutton busters even make an appearance at each rodeo performance. Of course, kids wear helmets for safety. $10 per ride.

FREE ENTERTAINMENT

Overview

The Washington State Fair offers a wide range of great entertainment that is included with the cost of your gate admission. This page is dedicated to some highlight features this year.

Powerhouse: Combining brilliantly innovative tap, precision clogging and explosive stomp into "Percussive Dance," Powerhouse is an electrifying dance experience that thrills audiences of all ages. Featuring the very best competitive dancers, these performers entertain from start to finish. Drawn in by the dancers' amazing energy, incredible talent and great audience interaction, crowds can't help but join in the fun of a Powerhouse show. <http://www.brianbon.com/powerhouse/>

Kids Celebration: Kids Celebration is an amazing, fantastic family experience like no other family show. This highly interactive game show is skillfully produced for children and parents to enjoy together. Kids are electrified by the colorful stage, memorable music and friendly team style competition. You're guaranteed to laugh from the priceless antics as your children engage other kids in this incredible jam packed entertaining adventure. <http://kidscelebration.org/fairevents.php>

Mountain Mist Stage: This stage will continually change out and have many new bands to promote. This is a great opportunity to celebrate traveling and NW artists and groups. New:

Neon Anteaters: They're a graceful, inquisitive duo of muppet-like four-legged giants. Kids are astounded and adults are fascinated by their realistic movements... and their long, slurpy tongues! Plus, they glow in ultraviolet light and they light up at night with electroluminescent wire. http://www.marcolandin.com/Neon\_Anteaters.html

Back by Popular Demand:

Rock Bottom Boys: The Rock Bottom Boys serve up a 'bone-a-fied' act with their hillbilly twist on tried and true rock hits from bands like The Rolling Stones, Aerosmith, and Sublime. Their spine tingling four part harmonies, homespun vocal styling, boot stomping music and well-seasoned showmanship transform some of the hardest rock songs into sweet ear candy when filtered through their hillbilly souls. <http://www.reverbNation.com/therockbottomboys4>

Seattle Sea Gals: Booked appearance the last Saturday of the Fair. Great catch the day before the big game.

Fabulous Roadstars: Strolling band and leaders of our daily parade.
