

Do The Puyallup.

The official theme song of the good old Western Washington Fair.

1. All the peo-ple and the a-ni-mals down at the Fair, they do the Puy-al-lup like they
2. Saw a duck and a chicken down by the barn, they were kickin' up the hay and
3. Asked the far-mer if he'd show me how to do it and he said, "why son, there did-n't have a care. And it looks like so much fun to do, I think I'm gon-na learn how-to raisin' such a storm that I asked a farm - er what they were up to an' he said, "Puy-al-lup, that's ain't noth-in' to it, just move to the music and jump in the air like ev'ry-one else who do - it, too!

 what - they do!"
 comes to the Fair!"

{ You can do it at a trot, you can

{ do it at a gal-lop, you can do it real slow so your heart won't pal- pi- tate;

{ just don't be late . . . do the Puy - al - lup!
